

THE BOOK OF JAMES

James 5:13-20

- This is our last lesson in the book of James, can you believe it? What a way to end the study of James. These eight verses contain so much information. To night I want you to read through these verses and discuss them and end with an overview of what you have learned this semester from the book of James. Take your time and enjoy this last study together. Next week will be a time of looking back and having some fun together one last time.

Read James 5:13-20
